SWP: What are you most proud of accomplishing so far in your life?

I am most proud of my 33 year journey with my best friend and husband David.

SWP: How has your upbringing influenced your writing?

Even though my father's job took us to 7 states, my summers in the southern U.S with my grandmothers had a large impact on my life perspective and therefore my voice.

SWP: What influenced your writing once you began?

I could not write anything unless it came from an honest place direct from my soul.

SWP: Why did you choose to write this particular chapter?

My angels told me in January that this year was going to be busy and challenging in many ways. I knew that I was going to have to be diligent with my intentions to keep my balance in order to get through it all happily and healthily.

SWP: Have you started any new writing yet?

I am currently working on a project with my sister Ann that requires me to write the book portion. I can't tell you what it is because she has sworn me to secrecy. A business colleague and I are working on a process journal for designers and I have started a personal memoir of my life adventures for my grandson Joshua.

SWP: What dreams have been realized as a result of your writing?

Unlike most people I know, I had never had a desire to write a book. I appreciate the opportunity that Sophia Fairchild provided me to get my feet wet and now I cannot stop.

SWP: Where can we purchase the book?
