SWP: What brings you the greatest joy in life?

I love, Love, LOVE inspiring people. When someone... family, friend or client, has a personal AHA! moment, it just makes my world go round, for they are getting glimmers of their true purpose and opening up to the whisperings of their heart.

SWP: What inspires you to write and why?

Life and chatting with the angels inspire me. When observing the world in a more detached manner, which ironically allows you to be more connected, you can see the larger picture and all sorts of different angles, or do I mean angels, for each situation. Either way, the angels are then quick to jump in to show me the lesson at hand in the most loving and joyful way.

SWP: What inspired you to write your chapter for Angels: Winged Whispers?

Sophia inspired me! It was an immediate yes! The angels jumped right in and offered a simple topic - chatting with the angels - how to easily do this, as well as how are they already chatting with you? You are so special, believe in yourself and know that the angels chat with you all day, every day - just open your eyes and know you are worthy.

SWP: Is there a message in your chapter that you want your readers to grasp?

It is so important for everyone to understand their true self worth. THAT is the biggest blockage of our desires not manifesting in the time frame we wish. We don't believe we are really worth it. Know you are worthy of anything and everything you truly, from your heart, desire. Step into that love of the angels and get ready to embrace more than you could have ever imagined!

SWP: Can we expect any new writing from you in the future?

I'm finishing up a non-angel project, The GABI Life ~ Grace Always Begins Inside. Yes, you too can have the life of a dog - A life that is filled with unconditional love, joy and ever present moments of now. It is currently in the hands of my literary agent and being presented to publishing houses. Keep those paws and tails crossed!

SWP: If you could leave your readers with one bit of wisdom, what would you that be?

Simply put - You. Are. Loved.
